Q.U.A.A. HOCKEY PLAYOFFS

CONCORDIA TO HOST LAVAL

The Concordia University Hockey Stingers, first place finishers in the regular season, will host the Laval University Rouge et Or this Friday evening (February 26th) 7:30 p.m. at the Concordia Arena in the second game of the Quebec University Athletic Association semi-final. The best of three affair opened Wednesday night in Quebec City. Should a third game be necessary, it will be played this Saturday afternoon (February 27th) at 2 p.m. at Concordia. The Stingers won all four meetings between the two clubs in league play this season, winning 3-1 and 7-3 at Laval and 5-1 and 7-1 at home.

The other semi-final will see the Ottawa Gee-Gees meeting the Trois Rivières Patriotes. Both Ottawa and Trois-Rivières have recorded victories over Concordia this year.

Concordia closed out league play on Sunday evening in Ottawa by posting a 4-3 win over the hometown Gee-Gees. Brian Taylor, Rick Pardo, Mike Elwood and Dave Clement scored for the Stingers who led 4-1 after 40 minutes and then hung on through several short-handed situations in the third period to push their unbeaten streak to 17 games. The Stingers finished the Q.U.A.A. schedule with a record of 21 wins, 2 losses and 1 tie.

BASKETBALL WOMEN AT MCGILL

The Concordia women's basketball team ended their regular season on Sunday with a narrow 47-45 decision over Trois-Rivières. Joann Bourque had 21 points to lead all scorers in the contest. Concordia will now meet the McGill Martlets on Friday evening (February 26th) 8 p.m. at McGill's Sir Arthur Currie Gymnasium in the Q.U.A.A. sudden-death semi-final.
